

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contact: Lynn Banks
831-320-3127

ALLU.S. CREDIT UNION CEO PATRICK REDO RECEIVES
KIM BANNAN ETERNAL FLAME AWARD FROM STATE
CREDIT UNION TRADE ASSOCIATION

Patrick Redo, president and CEO for allU.S. Credit Union in Salinas, was among those honored at this year's California and Nevada Credit Union Leagues' REACH Conference.

Redo received the Leagues' individual Kim Bannan Eternal Flame Award, which recognize efforts that contribute to the success and future of Shapiro Group credit unions, which have less than $69 million in assets. The awards are named after the Leagues' late vice president of credit union development and research and information. He was honored during the annual meeting and convention for the Ontario, CA-based trade association for the two states, held Nov. 4-6 at the JW Marriott Desert Springs in Palm Desert, CA.

Nancy Blackstock, CEO of Atchison Village Credit Union in Richmond, CA, nominated Redo for the award, saying he has contributed to the success of her credit unions and other small credit unions in California.

"Patrick is a huge asset to California Shapiro credit unions; a quiet, behind-the-scenes leader," she said.

"I think being recognized as a team member in a team that we all are a part of is very important to me, and I am very humbled by it,” Redo said while accepting his award.

Redo joined allU.S. Credit Union, formerly Monterey County Employees Credit Union, in January 2006. Since his appointment, the credit union’s assets have nearly doubled to $36.5 million.

Prior to allU.S., Redo served in a variety of leadership positions with Bank of America for 23 years and then five years as Chief Operating Officer at Patriots Federal Credit Union in Southern California.

He is a committed member of the community, providing support to Rancho Cielo Youth Campus and the Deputies Benefit Association.

###